Third Semester: Critical Thinking, Developing communication skills

1. Debating on current topics of public interest
2. Pick a topic and talk for a minute (JAM session). The topics would be got from the news paper of the day.
3. Editorial analysis

Fourth Semester: Developing interest in one's own domain of interest, Career opportunities:

1. Encourage students to gather information on subject of their interest
2. Research on topics/FAQs for placement interviews

Report: Students subscribed to Business Line/Economic Times for the entire semester. The Time-Table provided an hour for Newspaper Analysis. Many activities were planned to raise students' interest in reading the business paper and familiarizing with the current affairs. The modules covered for each semester were as follows:

Outcome:

1. The ability to communicate clearly and concisely is an advantage to a promising manager. The students realized that fluency and command over speaking and writing gives them an edge while interacting with people at all levels.
2. Self-awareness programs enhance the students' personalities. They get to realize that punctuality, goal management, collaborative team skills, and listening skills, are important facets of a well-rounded personality. These soft skills are enormously valued in business organizations. As employment conditions become tougher, potential recruiters look for personal attributes like attitude and values.
3. All management students aspire to obtain fulfilling and rewarding campus placements. The students understood that they have to internalize the personality development techniques. If they internalize the techniques thoroughly, they have a good chance of getting great placements.

2. Resume Writing/E-mail writing:

Resume writing is most effective way to demonstrate students' composition skills. Resumes are valuable tools for gaining employment for students to seasoned professionals. Student resumes differ from professional resumes in several ways, including the use of objective statements.

Objectives can be a great way for students to list their skills when they do not have work experience to rely on.

Report:

The Time-Table provided an hour for resume writing each day which included the Introduction to resume writing, Importance of building resume and the difference between curriculum vitae and resume. It helped the students to understand the do's and don'ts in a resume.

Resume/Email-writing

Outcomes:

1. Drafting error free CV's and resumes
2. Content drafting along with sequencing
3. Art of representing once qualification and most relevant work history
4. Selecting the ideal format.
5. Drafting an effective resume.
